

VIA festival 2011

International and interdisciplinary festival of theatre, dance, music and electronic arts. Via is a contemporary platform where different formats such as performance and installations meet in Mons, Belgium and Maubeuge, France. As such the festival is also a trans-border event in the north of Europe.